This book drew me in for the very first chapter! I couldn't put it down! I fell in love with the raw emotion in this one! Drawn to Mr. King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) Such a great story! I loved how it all came together in the end! I'm so glad that they were able to find their happy ending! Drawn to Mr. King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) *****I sort of knew that this was an emotional story just found it hard to get into and didn't connect with it and it didn't wow me like the previous. This story is deep and raw such an emotional journey it's a story that could be hard to read for many in some way but at the same time i loved how it shows this 'thing' doesn't always end sad or the way we presume: Lydia is amazing!! I need Lyds in my lifeA beautifully written love story, The story drags you in and you end up feeling it all: King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) 3: now i've LOVED the previous two books but this one didn't blow me away, don't get me wrong i enjoyed it.

But they got there, a beautifully crafted story with deep emotions and high Hopes: Thank you Elle Nicoll for your beautiful words Drawn to Mr, King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) I've been a huge fan of Elle Nicoll from word one. But this book takes my fangirl status to a whole different level! I love tension filled angsty books where you can get into the hearts of the main characters. King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) The strugglrs, King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) I really enjoyed the book until the epilogue. If it had been any other name I would have rated it higher. We don't always have to live in fear but live with strength and fight and remember to live every day because life's too short no one knows what's round the corner. King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) Get it as soon as Thursday Apr 21 Drawn to Mr: King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) Loved the characters. Brings you back to the other books that we're also amazing, King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) Elle has done it again, Her third book in The Men Series Drawn to Mr King is so incredible and emotional: Her writing is simply beautiful filled with words that are so affecting and moving while also having some dirty talking men in some spicy scenes, He is an Alpha male who also has an emotional and compassionate side: His father died of cancer and that has been extremely impactful on his life and his choices. She has been the assistant but now is her time to shine. First it was with her hotel artwork which is how Megan and Jaxson initially meet and hook up. Then it is with a children's book which is how Megan and Jaxson are reunited. This book was brilliant! I had so many different emotions reading it: It seems cliché to say that Megan and Jaxson's journey was a roller coaster ride but that is exactly what it was: It was frustrating (but in a good way) at times every time I thought they were going to figure things out something would keep them apart: This poignant story deals with a few real life sensitive problems that make the story that much heartbreaking, I cried for both of these characters and what they have gone through: Elle has written a beautiful story of pain angst anger grief fear and love. And we don't see those between just the two main characters but the supporting characters and their friendship with the main characters was just as beautiful, Megan and Jaxson's chemistry was fire My only complaint would be that I wanted of those steamy scenes for selfish reasons but it didn't fit the storyline so that is okay, In both Meeting Mr Anderson and Discovering Mr X we had a glimpse of the next story: But this time we are left with nothing so I am very eager to find out about Captured By Mr Wild! Drawn to Mr. King: A steamy age gap office romance (The Men Series Book 3) This book is wow!!! The words the emotions the hardships everything about it gives you all the feels. Jaxon King is a very deep man his past is brought roughly into his present affecting his decisions on a future a future with Meghan, Meghan a beautiful artistic soul that has nothing but love to give finding her own path and working her way up in the world, After their first night their story develops through a emotional rollercoaster: Their HEA was fight ex long haul flight attendant and mum of two[1]
