From posters to cars design is everywhere. Great text for design school students. Great visual examples used and it's not too long winded. Lots of visuals.Big problems for me: The paragraph text is too small. It's only about 1 point larger than the captions. Too small here. I treat my books very gently too. It is especially designed forthinking design and fashion. It is a wholenew way of thinking. 1616899778
