

Axel Vervoordt: Portraits of Interiors By Michael Gardner He specializes in narrative nonfiction storytelling ghostwriting and has extensive experience as a copywriter photography producer project manager business development and branding strategy and creative content. His essay The Competitive Lives of Gay Twins was published in the anthology From Boys to Men: Gay Men Write about Growing Up (Carroll Graf 2006) which was a Lambda Literary Award finalist for Best Anthology. In addition to a Pushcart Prize nomination his work has received recognition as a finalist for the New Letters Best Essay Award (2006) and a Nonfiction Award from the Guild Literary Complex in Chicago (2006). The book is a testament to the way a natural palette can elevate and enrich an interior space illustrated through a series of private family homes where Vervoordt says 'even when the design is minimal there is warmth.' Financial Times How to Spend It Axel Vervoordt's latest monograph Portraits of Interiors lovingly paints precisely that: intimate views into some of the Belgian designer's most masterful projects. Architectural Digest 15 New Interior Design Books We Can't Wait to Dive Into This Fall Whether used in a Tokyo apartment or a New England mansion the designer's signature interiors are always light filled modern and compelling. Forbes Holiday Gift Guide 2019: The Top Photography And Design Books Creating spaces that encourage self reflection but foster a sense of joy is at the core of Axel Vervoordt's work. Creating interiors that incorporate nature and art has been his life's passion for half a century and in this new book Portraits of Interiors by Michael James Gardner his work is explored through 17 recently designed homes. Axel's latest book Portraits of Interiors published by Flammarion which marks the 50th anniversary of the Axel Vervoordt Company features 17 of his recently designed projects all private family homes. The design of each home from a riverside home in Kerala to an Ibiza island retreat a city palace in Antwerp and a country estate in Surrey reflects its unique setting with a sense of serenity. uk) Seventeen recently designed residences each defined by Axel Vervoordt's shared dialogue between architecture nature and art reveal the perfect alchemy of Vervoordt expression in Axel Vervoordt: Portraits of Interiors.

Michael Gardner is a writer who lives in Antwerp Belgium. He earned a Master of Fine Arts degree in Nonfiction Writing from Saint Marys College of California studying with Marilyn Abildskov Wesley Gibson and Anthony Swofford: He is a frequent collaborator with the Axel Vervoordt Company and author of several Vervoordt books produced in partnership with Flammarion. These titles include: Living with Light At Home with May Vervoordt: Recipes for Every Season Axel Vervoordt: Stories and Reflections and Portraits of Interiors, As a studio manager he worked for brands such as Nike Kipling Samsonite and Schawk: His essays have appeared in various American literary journals such as the Seneca Review and Sonora Review. His freelance articles have been published in fashion and lifestyle magazines and various art catalogs. Originally from Des Moines Iowa he has lived in Chicago San Francisco Los Angeles Washington D, Master of minimalism Axel Vervoordt has been crafting refined interiors for half a century along the way snapping up A list clients including Kim Kardashian and Kanye West, His latest book features 18 standout residences (two of which are his own) among them a converted 17th century military barrack complete with its own Japanese minka: GALERIE MAGAZINE Axel Vervoordt: Portraits of Interiors by Michael Gardner (Flammarion) features 18 homes that the Belgian designer has created using his minimalist aesthetic, Whether used in a Tokyo apartment or a New England mansion the designer's signature interiors are always light filled modern and compelling: COMConsider this lavish hardback tome beyond the average coffee table topper. Hollywood ReporterAxel Vervoordt: Portraits of Interiors newly published by Flammarion is one of the most exciting new fall season design and architecture books. It's a beautiful book that is a call to action for designers and architects art collectors and design lovers: The Style Saloniste Portraits of Interiors celebrates 50 years of a design ethos that sees the home as an oasis fostering a sense of wellbeing. His style is universally loved with a devoted following of A list clients as varied as Calvin Klein and Bill Gates. Homes & Gardens With the guiding belief that a home should be 'a personal expression of your soul' acclaimed designer and collector Axel Vervoordt creates timeless restful spaces: 'Each place shows a lifestyle built around the owner's family created with their dreams in mind and based on the way they want to live ' he says. Featuring two of the designer's own homes the spaces encourage self reflection and happiness, Atlanta Homes & Lifestyles Axel Vervoordt: Portraits of Interiors O trabalho do Axel Vervoordt é de fato muito inspirador. As imagens contidas neste livro foram muito bem escolhidas e nos fazem sentir a atmosfera de cada cada ambiente ali retratado: Michael Gardner Tolles Buch Michael Gardner It has a lot of beautiful pictures but nothing that I can re read or get anything from Michael Gardner great! Michael Gardner.

.C. Hull England and Nagoya Japan. FORBES. The Home Page (thepage.co. Estou muito satisfeito com esta aquisição. Michael Gardner I appreciate his approach